Q. Where do you live in Cardiff

A. I have two properties – I live in Penarth in Cardiff, and Kenfig Hill in Bridgend.

Q. How well do you know the city?

A. Very well! I love the place. Everywhere I go around the UK, people know Cardiff as being a very cool place to live - an opinion which I naturally help to promote, as I'm very proud of our capital city.

Q. What would you be doing if you weren't answering these questions?

A. Sleeping! I've just got back from Canada, where I met up with the head of programming for CBN/MTV.

Q. What do you think of the music scene in Cardiff?

A. It's very strong - it always has been, and it currently seems to be at the forefront with music creativity.

Q. Where are the best places to perform in the city?

A. The CIA, the Millennium Stadium, the Coal Exchange, The Chameleon Group, The Mocka Lounge, The North Star, The Vulcan Lounge. And I think that they should re-open The

(Top) Penarth, where Jayce has one of his two homes (Middle and bottom) Mocka's and The Millennium Stadium are two of the best music venues to perform in the city

Point down at the Bay, which was an amazing venue to perform at.

Q. Where is your favourite place to watch a gig in Cardiff?

A. The CIA.

Q. Where do you go to eat?

A. Court Coleman Manor in Bridgend, and The North Star

Q. Where do you go after dark?

A. To the cave of the studio, Mocka, The Promised Land

Q. How do you relax?

A. I don't - what's that?

Q. Who are you currently listening to?

A. Depeche Mode – track Wrong

Q. Is it true that you're managed by Darth Vader?

A. Yes! Or at least, by Dave Prowse, who played him in the Star Wars movies

Q. Surprise us.

A. The international album launch will be in Cardiff - but where ????? It's TOP SECRET..... CL
